Auction report -- 2016

The evening of Friday, September 9th, found Baker Hall filled with hundreds of donated items for our auction waiting to be sorted and tagged. A determined crew made short work of the daunting chore in less than two hours.

Sunshine greeted the set-up team for the 2016 Grand Fall Auction on the morning of September 10th. A host of hard-working folks had the canopies and chairs out quickly. Items for auction were displayed in Hertlin Hall. The sanctuary was also prepped in case the hot weather drove the event indoors.

Prospective bidders came to inspect our array of goods, and many stayed to register and take part. The auction itself went remarkably smoothly. We actioned off 338 items in about 4 hours. It was a hot afternoon, but no one left early. There was spirited bidding to the bitter end and all seemed pleased with the offerings and the organization. The crowd was a splendid mix of old friends and newcomers.

I cannot begin to name all who turned out to help, but I would like to recognize newbie Liza Wright, who took a long stint at the auctioneer's podium. She did a terrific job. Paula's team at the registrar's table, including rookie Holly Ghosio, did a fantastic job managing all those flying bids. Debra's stalwart crew of "Vannas" kept the goods rolling out -- some of our attendees even crossed over to lend a hand. Collection & distribution was handled beautifully by Sue Preddice., Ginny Abresch, and Diane Hatton -- all new to the job. Soon Bowes oversaw the "Make-an-Offer" table and took in over $100!

Grand total as of this writing: $3,136.00 from 42 bidders! That is $9.28 average per lot -- a very fine showing! Most sincere thanks to all who donated such a fine array of unusual and desirable sell-ables. Thanks also goes to everyone who spread the word to friends and neighbors far and wide.

It was an exhausting yet exhilarating day for all involved, workers and guests alike. My congratulations and heartfelt thanks to all. Now start building that pile of great stuff for next year!

Rex Enderlin, auction co-ordinator and proud auctioneer

PS Here are a few facts to ponder for future auctions:

- 1) 5 items that were pledged and advertised were not delivered to the auction -- A big no-no.
- 2) The number of UMCLR donors fell from 44 last year to 27 this year. Non-UMCLR donors fell from 9 to 8. Ouch.
- 3) 57% of the inventory came from two donor sources. We really must spread out this burden if this event is to prosper.

Are you the type who just can't get enough Christmas?

Do Christmas decorations and ornaments call to you from store shelves?

Does your house become a winter wonderland for the month of December?

If you answered "yes" to any of these three questions, you may be interested in this!

The beauty of the Advent and Christmas season is most apparent and serene in a church setting. For a number of years now, Trish McElhone and I have decorated our church Chrismon Tree. That was not a misprint. Our tree is adorned with beautiful, hand-made heirloom ornaments, each representing a Christ-monogram or Chrismon. Rose Young, a departed church member, lovingly handcrafted each one. Trish and I have considered it an honor to place these cherished ornaments on the tree and following the holiday, carefully putting them away again for the next Christmas.

This will be my last Christmas living on Long Island. Trish and I have come to the conclusion that it's time for us to retire. We're looking for a dedicated team to carry on the Chrismon tradition in our church starting in 2017. Ideally we'd like to have the new team work with us this Christmas to see how we've been doing it. Of course, once a new team is established, it will be entirely up to you to design the sanctuary for Christ's birth. You will be part of the Worship Committee and will answer to the committee chairperson. What you're doing is considered "Worship Arts."

Worship Arts quietly happens when no one is looking. But you will have the satisfaction of knowing that the wonder and appreciation on the members of the congregation's faces is a result of your service to your Lord and your church.

Please contact Trish, Art Ricker or me in person or by phone for more information.

...And merry Christmas!

In God's service,

Regina Eger

On September 11, the church family had a surprise shower to wish Heather Wahl and her fiancé David DeSanto lots of blessings and happiness for their upcoming October marriage. Most surprising was that we actually surprised Heather! The intention was to present the almost newlyweds with a gift that they could enjoy on their honeymoon, or use towards their home together. Thank you to everyone who participated. We had a lot of fun!

To our Church family,

Words cannot fully express the emotions we felt with the outpouring of love at our Disney-inspired shower. You truly surprised us and have made our upcoming wedding even more special. Thank you to all those who came to share in our celebration, with a special thanks to Trish McElhone, Barbara Colucci and Regina Eger for all their hard work to make the day magical!

We are so blessed to be a part of such a wonderful church family. Thank you so much for your well wishes!!!

We love you all,

Heather and David

MARTHA'S PLACE THRIFT SHOP

SUMMER WILL BE OVER BY THE TIME YOU RECEIVE THIS AND WE WILL BE BUSY HANGING UP FALL AND WINTER CLOTHES FOR THE NEXT 5 MONTHS OR SO.

WE HAVE ASKED FOR A VOLUNTEER OR 'TEERS THE PAST MONTH AND HAVEN'T HEARD A WORD FROM ANYONE SO I GUESS THAT MEANS NO ONE IS INTERESTED IN INVESTING SOME TIME TO HELP YOUR THRIFT SHOP WHICH HELPS TO KEEP THE CHURCH OPERATING. IT IS ALSO A GREAT BENEFIT TO THOSE WHO CANNOT AFFORD NEW CLOTHING FROM MALLS, ETC.

THIS ISN'T A HARD VOLUNTEER JOB. WE START WITH A CUP OF COFFEE AT 10 OR SO AND THEN START IN WITH SOME LIGHT WORK.

ON ANOTHER NOTE, WE WERE ABLE TO SUPPLY MANY ITEMS TO THE AUCTION THIS YEAR. I WANT TO THANK YOU FOR GIVING US SELLABLE ITEMS AND CLEAN CLOTHING WITH NO STAINS, OR TEARS.

In God's service,
Marilee Drisgula and all volunteers

Note to Committee Chairs – Charge Conference Reports will be due in the church office no later than October 15th. For the 2016 charge conference report write-ups, each committee chairperson is being asked to report against the principle duties that each committee generated for the Mission Celebration Sunday Book and that was distributed in March 2016. A new Mission Book with committee duties will be distributed soon and will be available in the office. Thank you for your timely reports.*

CLASSES

FRIDAYS 6:00-6:45PM

Sept. 23rd-Nov. 18th

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
OF LAKE RONKONKOMA
792 Hawkins Ave. at 5 corners

Please consider joining us for this fun program that will promote fellowship, musicianship, play, and prayer among little ones and their families. Feel free to come weekly, just once, or whenever you can. Email hw322@nyu.edu for more details.

Please join us on October 17 (not the 10th) for a special meeting. Barbara Meyers has a meaningful and inspiring program planned for us. We will also be doing our part to support Pumpkin Patch during our meeting. We will sell pumpkins! The plan is to have each team of 2 or 3 ladies work the table for about 30 minutes. If you prefer just to attend the usual meeting and program, that is fine, we just want YOU. Pumpkin sales will begin at 5:30 p.m. Marilee Drisgula and Sue Sprague will be our hostesses.

Update as to the April 21-23 Quinipet Retreat: We have two spaces left and then will place names on a waiting list. See Marilee Drisgula or Sue Sprague to sign-up.

Many thanks to all of the ladies who provided such wonderful goodies during the September Coffee Hour and those who helped with set-up and cleanup with such spirit.

Now, in the spirit of all the great bakers in the UMW and those who like to eat, we offer the following obituary:

Please join me in remembering a great icon of the entertainment community. The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and trauma complications from repeated pokes in the belly. He was 71.

Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin. Dozens of celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, the California Raisins, Betty Crocker, the Hostess Twinkies, and Captain Crunch. The gravesite was piled high with flours. Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never knew how much he was kneaded.

Born and bread in Minnesota, Doughboy rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was not considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half-baked schemes. Despite being a little flaky at times, he was still a crusty old man and was considered a positive roll model for millions.

Doughboy is survived by his wife, Play Dough, and three children: John Dough, Jane Dough and Dosey Dough, plus they had one in the oven. He is also survived by his elderly father, Pop Tart. The funeral was held at 350 for about 20 minutes.

If this made you smile, please rise to the occasion and take time to pass it on and share that smile with someone else that may be having a crummy day and kneads a lift.

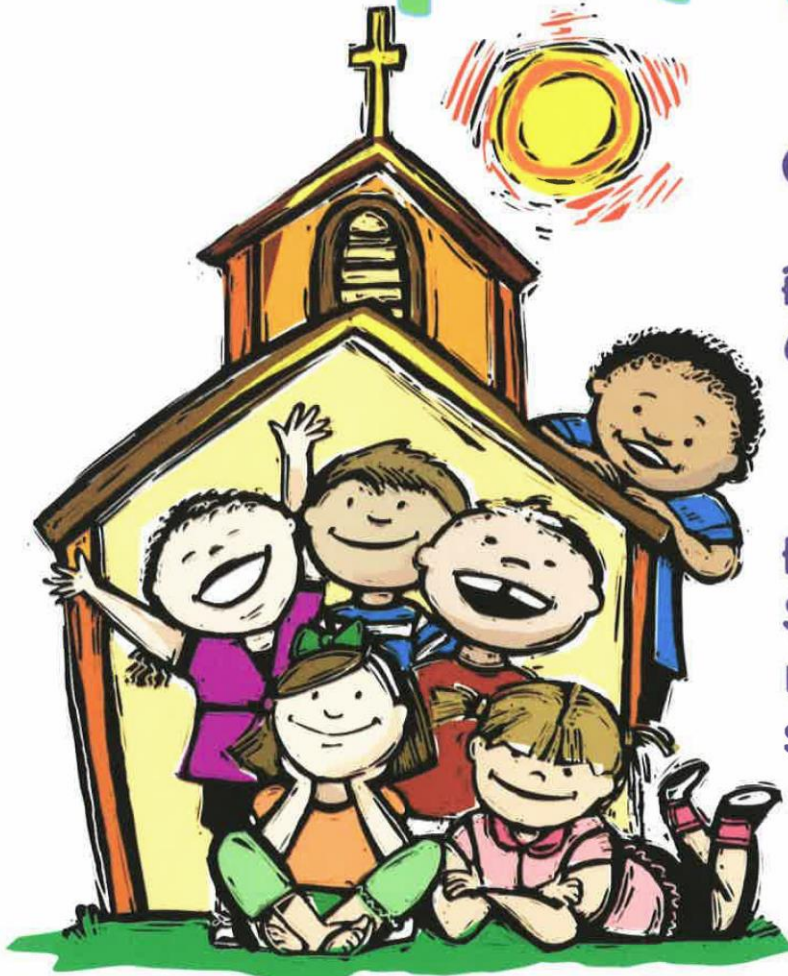

The logo features the word "UP" in large green letters with a green arrow pointing upwards through the letter "P". To the right, the word "coming" is written in a smaller green font. Below these, the word "EVENTS" is written in blue, all-caps, serif font. Three red stars are positioned above the "UP" text.
