Martha's Place Thrift Shop

Another year has passed and we are now celebrating Valentine's Day so we hope you have something special planned!!!

We got off to a shaky start after Christmas Vacation with a snow storm on Saturday the 7th of January, so we lost a work day having only started back on the 6th. However, we made some good sales the next week.

While we were closed, Bill Wahl did some painting to freshen up our desk area and bathroom. Then, Doug Filipowich replaced a much needed bathroom cabinet and put a new cover on the heating vent. Many thanks fellas!!!

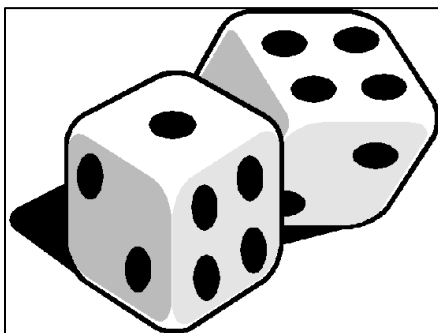

I want to thank Helen Morley for filling in for Helen Foy who has been in Florida since September and now Helen M. is leaving for Florida for 2-3 months in February. Many thanks to both ladies who came to the rescue to work as cashiers. Now we are prayerful that another volunteer will come to the rescue again!!!

Oh, I forgot to mention that Walter Schroeder took new toys, games and puzzles to a drop-off at Friendly's for Long Island disadvantaged children. These were new items that were put aside for such a mission.

In God's service,

Marilee Drisgula and all volunteers

We will be having the Super Bowl Bake Sale on Super Bowl Sunday, February 5. Even if your team loses, you'll be a winner with a great dessert. Stop by for a half-time treat at home or take to the relative's house with the big screen TV.

The United Methodist Women take a break from meeting in February because of the snowbirds among us and the uncertain winter weather. We look forward to our next official meeting on March 13.

The Retreat Committee is happy to announce arrangements for a Quinipet retreat for all ladies of the church. It will be April 21, 22 and 23, 2017, which is the weekend after Easter. If you cannot arrive on April 21, a Saturday arrival is fine. The retreat is also open to Northport UMC. A $50 deposit will be collected from each who wishes to attend. The total cost will be between $66 and $118 depending on the number of ladies attending (inclusive of deposit). We are almost at our limit and often a space opens at the last minute, so sign up now.

It has been our custom to bring our food, as it is considerably less expensive than having Quinipet supply it. The food cost will be advised at a later date and will be very reasonable.

All ladies of the church are welcome to attend any and all meetings or events. We have open meetings and welcome all.

Chancel Choir Chatter

Happy New Year!
Come on! Join the fun and music-making!

Looking back at 2016, the choir presented fresh anthems and introits every single week - hymns, gospel, spirituals, Renaissance, contemporary, country, even a few show tunes and pop standards. And we will continue the same in this coming year.

Highlights from last year include some delicious works for Palm Sunday such as Robert Walker's "Meditation," Craig Courtney's "Procession and Hymn" with our visiting brass quintet (which incidentally regaled the congregation with works by Palestrina, Giovanni Anerio, and Johann Ernst Eberlin.)

Holy Week continued with Maundy Thursday when our resident string quartet teamed up with the chancel choir and four visiting trombonists for works by Johann Hermann Schein, and the magnificent Nunc Dimittis by Giovanni Gabrieli. Other beautiful Renaissance works by Orlando di Lasso, Manuel Cardoso, and Thomas Tallis were also presented. The choir sang Anton Bruckner's "In monte Oliveti" and a new setting of "Ubi caritas" by Texas composer Joseph Gentry Stephens.

The solemnity of Good Friday was evoked by the choir's interpretation of John Stainer's "Cross of Jesus, Cross of Sorrow," "And No Bird Sang" by Chicago native Douglas Wagner, and the hopeful "Do Not Stand at my Grave and Weep" by Texan, Laura Farnell.

Organist Heather Edward-Wilson and the praise band, "Illumination," kept the congregation stomping on Easter morning and once each month throughout the year.

The last Sunday prior to our summer choir hiatus was transformed into "Baseball Sunday." In full baseball regalia, we sang "Take me out to the Ball Game," "The Baseball Game" from You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, and "Six Months out of Every Year" from Damn Yankees. The service was punctuated during the seventh inning stretch by having Bobbie Clark's jersey (robe) hoisted to the rafters and her number retired.

The highlight of the Christmas Season was the performance of the annual Christmas Cantata. This year we presented "Candles & Carols" by Mark Hayes with a sizable 14 piece orchestra.

Looking forward into the new year, we are planning on the brass & string ensembles to join us again for Palm Sunday to present Randall Thompson's "Pueri Hebraeorum,” “Hosanna” by Thomas Weelkes, and more Gabrieli (“Judica me” and “Virtute magna” from his 1597 Sacre symphoniae).

Several short lovely antiphons by Lithuanian composer Jouzas Naujalis will be sprinkled throughout the Holy Week services. Also planned are “Vere langoures” (Surely He hath Borne our Griefs) by Peruvian composer Renzo Bracesco, and “Lord, Dost Thou Wash my Feet?” by Brazilian José Nunes Garcia.

The 2017 Christmas Cantata will be (if the edition is completed in time) “The Holy Child” by the New England master and Yale University professor, Horatio Parker. We have uncovered an unpublished orchestration from 1902 by Oscar Coon which we hope to have edited and ready for our orchestra and chorus by this coming fall.

Choir Recognition Sunday will be, as always, a surprise. Expect freaky costumes, fun tunes, and a really rollicking good time.

The choir is open to all who love to sing. We welcome all comers - the only requisite is the ability to “carry a tune.” No other singing experience is required, and we’ll do our best to make you feel at home. We meet every Wednesday evening from 7:30 - 9:00 in the sanctuary.

Blessings to all,

Dr. Rex Enderlin,
UMCLR Chancel Choir director

FOOD PANTRY

Our Food Pantry had a very successful year right up to the very end. Sharon Millard from Woodman of the World provided us with over 100 toys for children of all ages ranging from infant toys to a large remote control tractor trailer. We displayed the toys in Hertlin Hall and I provided each Food Pantry Person with a ticket for the number of children they signed in with.

Ginny Abresch stayed in Hertlin Hall ensuring their selections matched the number of children they had signed in with. They were so excited and had a wonderful time. Sharon also provided ten $25 Gift Cards to Stop and Shop which were randomly distributed.

The older children from the food pantry families were questioned to determine what they would like a gift card for. Lisa Eger took care of this for us and filled all their wishes.

Thank you everyone who helped make our food pantry families feel special and learn the true meaning of Christmas.

In God's name,
Maryann Piga

On the silly side...

The Importance of Punctuation

I'm not the easiest guy in the world to get along with. So when our anniversary rolled around, I wanted my wife to know how much I appreciated her tolerating me for the past 20 years. I ordered flowers and told the florist to enclose a card that read, "Thanks for putting up with me so long."

When my wife got the delivery, she called me at work. "Just where do you think you're going?" she asked.

"What do you mean?" I said.

She read the card aloud as the florist had written it: "Thanks for putting up with me. So long."
