MARTHA'S PLACE THRIFT SHOP

September is over and we are ready for October fun. We are looking forward to the pumpkin patch and Halloween. We already have costumes on the rack, mostly children's costumes and some larger ones for adults, but you need to come in to check us out!!!

We have decorations as well but, once again, you need to check us out when we are open Mon. Tues. Fri. and Sat. from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M.

Also, the fall and winter clothing is coming out as fast as we can open the boxes and hang them.

Thank you for your continued donations to keep our shop moving along nicely. Without your participation we would have to close the shop.

Still looking for 1 or 2 volunteers to help.

In GOD'S service,
Marilee Drisgula and all volunteers

Game Night!

All adults are welcome to join us for Game Night on Friday, October 19th at 7:00 PM at church. Enjoy a night out filled with fun and fellowship!

Ladies – I know it's early, but please mark your calendars for the Women's Retreat being held from April 26 – 28, 2019 at Camp Quinipet. It was a fun and spiritual weekend last time!

Please contact me if you are interested at craftysms@aol.com, or call/text me at 631-835-2045!
Thanks, Sue Sprague

Auction report -- 2018

The evening of Friday, September 7th, found Baker Hall filled with hundreds of donated items for our auction waiting to be sorted and tagged. For the very first time, ALL pledged items arrived on site!!! A determined crew made short work of the daunting chore in little more than one hour.

A cold drizzle greeted the set-up team for the 2018 Grand Fall Auction on the morning of September 8th. A host of hard-working folks had the canopies and chairs out quickly. Items for auction were displayed in Hertlin Hall. Fortunately, the weather took a turn for the better and we never saw a drop of rain until near the close of the event. "JJ's Hotdogs" helped keep the bellies satisfied along with fresh-cooked corn prepared by John Stein & Co.

Prospective bidders came to inspect our array of goods, and many stayed to register and take part. The auction itself went remarkably smoothly. We actioned off 340 items in about 4 hours. There was spirited bidding to the bitter end and all seemed pleased with the offerings and the organization. The crowd was a mix of old friends and handful of newcomers.

I shall not try to name all who turned out to help for fear of omitting someone, but it was a well-coordinated effort with plenty of willing hands. Grateful thanks to all. Your efforts are indispensable to the success of this venture.

As of this writing: hammer price at the podium came to $3,761.00 from about 50 bidders (that's $11.06 average per lot -- a very fine showing indeed!); the Make-an-Offer table took in nearly $100.00; and John Stein's new venture - "Merchants' Alley" - netted over $400.00 additional.

Most sincere thanks to all who donated such a fine array of unusual and desirable sell-ables. Thanks also goes to everyone who spread the word to friends and neighbors far and wide.

It was an exhausting yet exhilarating day for all involved, workers and guests alike. My congratulations and heartfelt thanks to all. Now start building that pile of great stuff for next year!

Rex Enderlin, auction co-ordinator and proud auctioneer

UMCLR SUNDAY SCHOOL 2018-2019

Dear Friends/Family of UMCLR:

Welcome back to a new year of Christian faith education here at the Lake Ronkonkoma United Methodist Church! We have had a fun and meaningful summer as we experienced Jesus's parable of the Good Samaritan. We even became Good Samaritans ourselves by making snacks for the coffee hour, creating special cards for our parents and loved-ones, and by helping to collect school supplies for local kids in need for the new school year. Another wonderful year awaits all of the Sunday School children and families and we are excited to kick it off with a Family Picnic on September 9th after service! We hope to see many of you there!

Our children's and youth programs have been solidified over the summer during education committee meetings to better reach all young people each and every Sunday. For our Sunday School, we are once again "diving in" with the Deep Blue Kids curriculum called, "Rotation Stations," where we will begin our Fall semester learning about the story of how God chose Joshua.

Rotation stations are, like the name implies, different stations that will help children deepen their understanding of the Bible story. The seven different stations are: Games, Missions, Spiritual Practices, Cooking, Art, Science, and Storytelling/Drama. All K-5th grade children will be grouped into two or three mixed-age groups to get to know each other better and to experience a different kind of cooperative learning than might be possible in their regular school experience. There will also be a PreK (ages 2-4) class with a special Bible lesson and related hands-on activities each week. The Sunday Youth program (grades 6-12) will meet in the library after the choir anthem every Sunday. Join in the discussion after watching a video clip about everyday life situations and how to respond with a Christian outlook. Youth will use the Submerge guide each week.

We are very excited about the new school year and we hope that you will be excited too! If you would like to get more involved, we welcome you!! Please speak with either Tammy Edwards-Wilson (Sunday School Superintendent) or Alyssa Schoenemann (Education Chairperson).

With God's Love,

Tammy Edwards-Wilson

UMW NEWS

To All Church Ladies,

YES! Autumn is here!! My favorite time of the year and I know for most of you as well. The weather is mild, school has started, and we see lots of little critters running around the yards collecting acorns and seeds for their winter feasts. And of course, the month of October brings visions of pumpkins and scary spirits whirling around the nighttime sky. BOO!

Meeting Updates

In September, the UMW had a book discussion led by Lisa Larsen Hill. Land of Silence by Tessa Afshar. Thanks to all the ladies that came out in the dreadful weather – much appreciated. It was an enlightening discussion and everyone enjoyed learning about each other’s perspectives about the characters and how the story applied in their own lives. So much so, that we decided to have another book discussion in November. YEAH! Look below for more information

For this month, October 8, 2018, we will be having an evening of selling pumpkins and fellowship. Barbara Colucci will be here at 5:30 pm to start pumpkin time and anyone is welcome to join her until we have a brief meeting around 8 pm. We will be making s’mores!

Looking Ahead

November 12 – Book discussion led by Lisa Larsen Hill. We will be discussing Pearl In the Sand by Tessa Afshar. All are welcome, regardless of whether you read the book or not.

December 10 – Holiday Party at Barbara Colucci’s home. Potluck and all are welcome!

Thank you to all the ladies who helped with coffee hour during the month of September. Baking and bringing your goodies is always much appreciated. It was tricky at times with the other events going on, but it all came together.

And thanks to all the men who started the coffee pots for us every Sunday morning! You get a gold star and lots of hugs!

Yours in Christ,
Ilona Torraca
UMW President

EVANGELISM AND MISSIONS Annual Charge Conference Report

Our accomplishments have been many. The committee members have been faithful and supportive. Here is how the past year has gone since the last report of November 2017.

2017

November – Veterans Luncheon, Blood Drive, Operation Christmas Child, Thanksgiving Baskets to families in need.

December – Collected donations for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund, and Christmas Caroling. Coats were collected and delivered to the Eastern Farm Workers.

2018

February – Raised money for the Music Fund.

March – Raised money for Children's Bibles for the EASTER BIBLE BASKET PROJECT organized by the Lighthouse Mission in Bellport, N.Y. (Had a Soup Sunday and sold shamrocks to be able to buy the Children's Bibles.)

April – Blood Drive

May – Local Street Fair Rained out.

June – Had a Pot Luck Dinner and concert. Money raised went to UMCOR. Requested they support the Long Island East District Disaster Preparation Response Fund.

July & August – Collected supplies and raised money for 83 backpacks. All backpacks and supplies were donated to 2 local elementary schools. Our school supplies drive was overwhelmingly successful. Thanks to Helen Morley for finding the nice backpacks online. I told both social workers to give a call/email if there was a need in their school community that we might be able to help them with, in general, or for the upcoming holiday seasons. We sponsored a Paint Night on July 28th. Walter Schroeder was kind enough to take pictures to post for all to see. It was a great success. Fun and Fellowship with the Arts.

Then in October the BIG ORANGE Fundraiser is upon us. The Pumpkin Posse has added new activities to the event. TRUNK OR TREAT October 20th. Also a POT LUCK DINNER AND MOVIE on October 26th. Contact the POSSE at: PUMPKINPATCH@UMCLR.COM

To finish the 2018 year out:

1. We are having a SOUP SUNDAY. It is on September 30th. Soon Bowes has volunteered to organize it. Info will be presented soon in church.
2. Veterans Sunday is November 11th. Diane and Jerry June have traditionally organized this day.
3. November 18th will be the next Blood Drive.
4. We have changed our Christmas Mission from Operation Christmas Child to a TOYS FOR TOTS venue. November 18th is also the day to bring in unwrapped toys. We will be contacting the Chief of the Ronkonkoma Fire Department. Our wish is for them to be able to distribute the toys we collect and give them to families in need.
5. Once again we will have the Christmas tree up and be collecting offerings for the Pastor's Discretionary Fund.
6. Last year was the miracle of coats. A box was put out and it was amazing. Coats arrived. Please watch for the box.
7. Christmas Caroling is planned for December 19th. Please let me know if you know of any people or places we could or should visit. We always end up at Hertlin Hall.

The members of the Evangelism and Missions Committee are excellent!! All of the above, and more, could not be accomplished without all of them. Love working with them.

If I missed an upcoming event, I am sure someone will let me know.

Serving God,
Debra Schild

HIGHLIGHTS FROM OUR MISSION BOOK

This month the Memorial Committee is being chosen to familiarize you with the duties and achievements of this group.

“The Memorial Committee’s purpose is to receive, obtain and maintain those particular items that commemorate the memory of individuals and events of our church. The memorial items establish an appropriate means of commemoration in accordance with the wishes of the donor and with the needs of the church.”

When a loved one passes, envelopes are available for family and friends to make a donation to our church. Often it is suggested by the family in lieu of flowers. Some funds are designated for a particular purchase or project while others are undesignated and added to other funds for purchase or replacements of necessary items.

“Specifically, we have:

- replaced altar paraments
- installed stained glass windows
- purchased a portable grill
- replaced the baptismal font
- erected a flag pole
- planted a tree in memory of the victims of the Oklahoma bombing
- purchased Bibles and hymnals”

Donations made “In Memory Of” or “In Honor Of” are always welcome.

The Committee’s Chairperson is Janet Baumann. Jean McNeil, Diane June, Helen Mulvihill, Paula Filipowich are the members. If you have any questions, ask any one of them.

WISH LIST

There will be a monthly list of projects or purchases needed for the church. Please consider making a donation for the item or towards it. Please indicate the purpose for your donation on your check.
