VISION STATEMENT OF THE NY ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The New York Annual Conference through the grace of God embodies the beloved community of hope, building up a healthy body of Christ, with heart-warmed United Methodists in mission for the transformation of the world.

VISION STATEMENT OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF LAKE RONKONKOMA

We are the church at Five Corners spreading the “Light of Christ” from ourselves to the community and the world.

- Fall Speakers
  - The five tenets that we all seek to follow as stated in our hymnal are; Prayers, Presence, Gifts, Service and Witness. For four Sundays this fall, September 10, 17, 24 and Oct 1 we will have the opportunity to hear from one of the four individuals who seek to provide their personal witness to the congregation on these 5 tenets. Please pray for each of these individuals as they prepare to offer their testimony on these four Sundays.
    - September 10 – Bill Wahl
    - September 17– Wendy Duffy
    - September 24 –Patricia Hayward
    - October 2 – Al Simmons

- Where are you in your personal walk with Jesus Christ?
  - PRAYERS –Do you pray on a regular basis? Are you able to pray for those on our prayer list, for your family, for God’s will in your life?
  - PRESENCE – Are you able to be a representative of Jesus Christ to others through your words and actions outside of Church?
  - GIFTS – Are you able to share your Gifts, including your talents, and your tithes and offerings? Please give regularly to enable the Church to meet its mission obligations.
  - SERVICE – Are you able to serve others you meet or through your Church?
  - WITNESS – Are you able to witness to others about your faith and your belief?

MARTHA'S PLACE THRIFT SHOP

Summer is almost over and thankfully we held down the shop with volunteers on vacation, etc. It is good that everyone returned safely. We still have Doris Coniglio at home recovering from shoulder surgery and wish her well!!

Your Thrift Shop volunteers are working hard to make a good profit for your Church Missions and other miscellaneous bills. However, we are still waiting for you to come in and shop, but if you can't do that, then please continue with your donations of clean and gently used clothing and other items for us to stay in business for the community!!!

Thank you for your continued donations and have a great school season coming up.

Yours in Christ,

Marilee Drisgula and all volunteers

Here at the nursery school we are getting ready for our 2017-2018 school year.

We look forward to a fun-filled year full of learning and joy.

Our team is full of big hearts ready to shape little minds.

-Phyllis Thomas

Nursery School Director

"Disasters don't plan ahead. You can." This is the official tagline for National Preparedness Month 2017, coming up in September.

The national weather service has increased the expected number of storms and hurricanes for 2017. What can you do to prepare? Congregants are encouraged to gather nine items that can make a big difference in a disaster or any emergency. Those essentials include water, food, clothes, medication, flashlight, manual can opener, portable radio, hygiene items and first aid supplies. Enough supplies should be on hand to last several days in the event of long-term power outages.

Congratulations to new parents, Keith and Jillian, on the arrival of their son, Carter Kirk Almonaitis! Grandma Marilyn and Grandpa Chip are over the moon with excitement!!

September Birthdays

These names are offered each month as an opportunity to extend to our friends and loved ones the love of Christ on these special days and to express our thanks for the gift of their presence in our midst.

If you would like to be on our birthday list, call the church office at (631) 588-5856 and we will gladly add your name.

Dear UMW Members,

I greatly appreciated the opportunity to speak to the UMW on Monday, August 7th, on the behalf of the Temple Refugee Outreach. I would also like to thank the individual members who made donations to the TRO (Temple Refugee Outreach). It is very much appreciated.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Katie Pfeil (Student at Temple University)

We, the leaders of our new Youth Ministry Team, have been busy bees this summer, training, planning, learning, and growing with the help of Neal Bowes, NY Conference, Youth Ministry Consultant, and the book he recommended, "A Purpose Driven Youth Ministry." We are proud to share the fruits of our summer work with our church family...

We learned we needed a purpose to drive our ministry so the 5 purposes for youth ministry are below and we chose synonyms that mean something. Here is what we came up with...

Evangelism --- Reach
Ministry --- Share
Fellowship --- Connect
Discipleship --- Grow
Worship ---- Glorify

And here is UMCLR's new Youth Ministry Purpose Statement:

"We exist to REACH youth in order to SHARE the light of Christ and together CONNECT, so we can GROW in our ability to GLORIFY God!"

Announcing Our 1st Event for the New Year:

Family Faith Week
August 24 – 28, 2017

Little Angels Music Class will be taking place this fall on Fridays for a 6-week session. Our first meeting will be held on September 29th at 6:15 in Baker Hall at the United Methodist Church of Lake Ronkonkoma.

Little Angels is a caregiver-and-me music program at the United Methodist Church of Lake Ronkonkoma run by the organist that includes sacred and secular music, singing, dancing, instruments, prayer, and community. It is designed for families with children ages 0-5, though older siblings, cousins, etc. are always welcome. It was designed specifically for families who may find it challenging to bring their little ones to a traditional service on Sunday morning but would still like their families to experience Christian worship in a family-friendly and accommodating setting. Non-church-members and non-Christians are welcome. We hope to see many of you and your friends there!

Important Date!
Please mark your calendars.

Charge Conference – Thursday,
November 9 at 7:00 p.m.

Missions and Evangelism

WOW! What a generous group!!

THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!! THANK YOU!!!

Such an overwhelming response for our school supplies and school bags!!! Thanks to our sewers, Diane June, Miriam Rodriguez and Eileen Panasci who also filled the bags she made with supplies. We had 51 school bags filled with supplies. Then some bags filled. Bags and supplies were donated to Cayuga Elementary School and Wenonah Elementary School. They were so impressed with our substantial donations. I made sure they also knew about the Pantry and the soup kitchen.

My school bag
angel stuffers!

Ready for delivery!

Missions and Evangelism

The Ronkonkoma Street Fair was a success. The weather cooperated. Our Representatives chatted with people and handed out approximately 150 Welcome Bags. Thanks to Helen Morley for donating a "sandwich board."

There were pictures of our missions and projects the church has done locally and internationally.

Thanks to Gina Gong for donating this lovely tablecloth to be used as a banner for church functions.

Trustees Work Day

September 30th

9AM – 2PM

All talents welcome! Please join us for a work day to better our church!

We need organizers, rakers, weeders, painters and all general do'ers!

If you are on a committee and would like to submit a wish list for our do'ers to consider or coordinate with you to accomplish, we'll take those as well.

We will meet for a Bagel Breakfast and then begin our work.

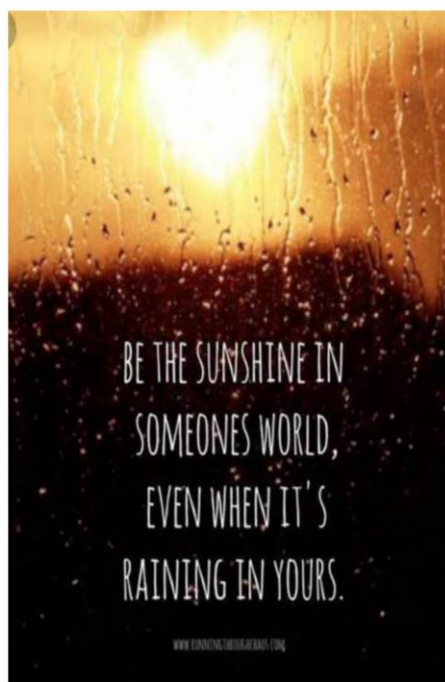

Please send RSVP/requests to Beth Ann Graf and/or Keith Bowes.

A True Story: Life's been rough lately. I've been way off track. Embarrassingly so. How does a woman who lost 85 pounds 9 and a half years ago slip like this? Today was the day I was going to get back to tracking, not overeating and taking care of me. It's time!

This morning, I received a call that the ambulance is at my parent's house to whisk dad back to the emergency room. Two weeks ago tonight he made it through triple bypass and valve replacement surgery.

As I was running errands several hours later with my boy, a woman near me loudly muttered, "Sorry for smiling at your child." I turned in every direction and there was no one else around. It was directed at me. I hadn't even noticed her. I was thinking of my dad. Of all of the tasks that need to be done in our new home. Of the lower body brace my son is getting next week for an indefinite amount of time for hip dysplasia. Of everything in the world I need to accomplish. But not her. Apparently she had smiled at my son and I looked at her angrily? I almost engaged, but why? I walked past her and let it go.

As I left the store, the skies opened and it began to pour. We ran to the car and as I started buckling my boy in the car, his stroller flipped over into a puddle with all of our purchases. Several cars drove past splashing my items. As my son took priority and I belted him in his car seat, a man stopped his car in traffic, got out, righted the stroller and picked up my things. As I thanked him profusely for his kindness, he said, "Not a problem. It's what you do."

He's right. There will always be rain. There will always be negativity. Choose to be the sun. The storm ends, the skies clear, but when we choose negativity, we don't even notice. Be kind. Be grateful. Be someone's sun when there is darkness.

I could choose to binge. To "reward" myself for a tough day. Instead, I will take that man's positivity and kindness and show myself the same love. "Not a problem. It's what you do."

Grief Workshop

Sunday, October 29, 2017

1:30 p.m. -4:00 p.m.

1:00 p.m. Arrivals & Refreshments

Presenter: Paul Alexander, LCSW

A workshop and healing opportunity to have time to honor our grief and how we are experiencing it even several years after a loss. The connection of love never dies. As we honor the continuing power of connection, we will gently explore unresolved feelings that can cause unrest and discover techniques that can assist us in moving forward.

Offering: $35 including $20 non-refundable/non-transferable deposit.
